'Latin flair' - wines of Argentina & Supper

The Carpenters Arms, Great Wilbraham, Cambridge

wednesday 9th November 2016

7.30 – 9.45 PM

Argentina is one of the world's nature reserves. Privileged with outstanding natural richness and extraordinarily diverse landscapes, Argentina boasts high mountains and plains, lush vegetation and extreme deserts, forests and steppes, glaciers and waterfalls. This wealth of natural ecosystems includes vast, highly productive grape-growing regions stretching at the foot of the Andean strip, to the West of the country, from latitude 22° south to latitude 42° south. It is in this context, and in the course of five centuries, that Argentina has developed such an extraordinary wine industry. The altitude, the wide range of temperatures, the local know-how, the new technologies and a deeply-rooted popular wine culture lend our wines their unique identity

Includes Supper Dish - Slow-roasted pork shoulder
