

REMEMBERING D-DAY

THE WILBRAHAMS AND THE WAR

June 6th 1944: Mustangs of the 361st Fighter Group, US Air Force depart Bottisham Airfield to provide air support for D Day.

June 15th 2024 (5.00PM): Illustrated Talk by Jason Webb (Bottisham Airfield Museum): The history of the airfield during WW II and its role in the liberation of Europe.

St John's Church, Little Wilbraham

Tickets available from nigelwathen@gmail.com or on the door: £7.50, including refreshments (Wine, soft drinks, snacks)